

Central Valley Project Cost Allocation Study

Friday, November 21, 2014, 10 a.m. to 12 p.m.

Federal Building, 2800 Cottage Way

Cafeteria Conference Rooms C1001-C1002

Sacramento, CA 95825

Public Meeting to discuss a proposed “Two-Period Repayments – Two-Cost Allocation Approach” and the results of the proof-of-concept test for the hydroelectric power benefit analysis.

10:00-10:10 Welcoming Remarks

Brooke Miller-Levy, Project Manager

10:10-10:40 Presentation – “Two-Period Repayments – Two-Cost Allocation Approach”

Bill Taylor, Economist, Policy and Administration, Denver, Colorado

10:40-11:10 Presentation –Proof-of-Concept Test for the Hydroelectric Power Benefit Analysis

Mary Johannis, Deputy Regional Planning Officer, Division of Planning, Mid-Pacific Region, Sacramento, California

11:10-12:25 Questions and Answers

Bill Taylor and Mary Johannis

12:25-12:30 Closing Remarks & Next Steps

Brooke Miller-Levy

Next Meeting: To be determined

For additional information, copies of meeting handouts or to submit comments or questions, please visit the CVP CAS website: <http://www.usbr.gov/mp/cvp/cvp-cas/>.